described above, the Section 103(a) rejection of claims 10 and 17, which depend from claim 1, is believed to be overcome at least for this reason.

Rejection under Section 103(a): Keahn et al. in view of Saunders et al.

Claim 20 is amended to include the following steps:

after said forming a one-piece inner member, bending the inner member;
after said forming a one-piece outer member, bending the outer member[.]

Claim 21 is amended to further specify what the bending steps accomplish. Neither Keahn et al. nor Saunders et al. teach or suggest bending of a formed one-piece inner member or outer member. The Section 103(a) rejection of claim 20, and of claims 21-28 which respectively depend therefrom, is believed to be overcome at least for this reason.

Conclusion

In light of the above remarks and the amendments to the claims as well as to the drawings, it is believed that all of the remaining claims 1-4 and 6-28 are in condition for allowance, which action is respectfully requested.
